

DPQA

Certificate of Qualification

This is to confirm that:

Flamingo Oil
205 NE 179th Street
Miami, FL 33167

Is a Shell Products US contract distributor with a Bulk Lubricants Addendum and Trademark License.

An integral part of the DPQA program is to pass a Comprehensive Quality Assurance inspection and demonstrate an active involvement in long-term quality commitments. The DPQA program provides a means for Shell products and the distributor's bulk handling and packaging facilities and processes. Quality begins in Shell Oil Products US's manufacturing plants and extends to Authorized Bulk Handling and Packaging distributors who must maintain the proper "Product Chain of Custody."
